

Madame or Monsieur,

I understand congratulations are in order! Congratulations !!!

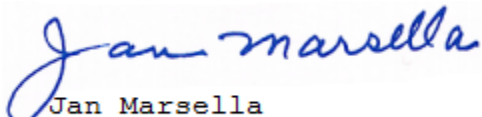

Inspector Pierre Touché was in a pinch, and you came through like a true trooper. Nowhere in the history of mystery solving has such shrewdness ever been displayed. Your cunning style of detecting is an excellent example for private investigators all over the world.

You single-handedly and most successfully solved the intriguing Diamond Case #3. You navigated your way through a maze of intricate streets. With only a few clues redeemed the precious diamonds, and once and for all apprehended and booked that obnoxious nuisance to society, Henri Le Fiend.

We applaud you. We honor you with the Super Sleuth award, presented only to those who have demonstrated their unique talent in detecting. In addition to the recognition of your cleverness, you will also be put on our mailing list to receive vital information on upcoming software.

The honorable Super Sleuth organization welcomes you!

With great admiration,

Jan Marsella
Chief Inspectress
